1º. Pinchar en la ventana verde "Download Now! y obtendrá el programa.

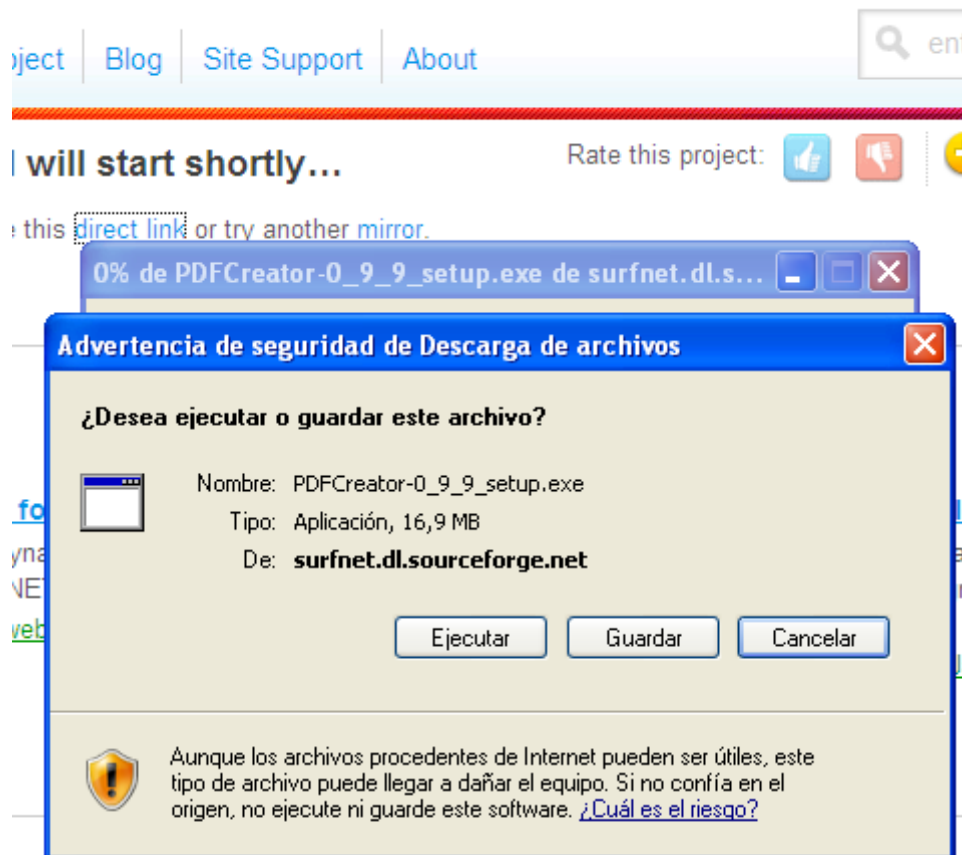

2º. Aparecerá la siguiente ventana.

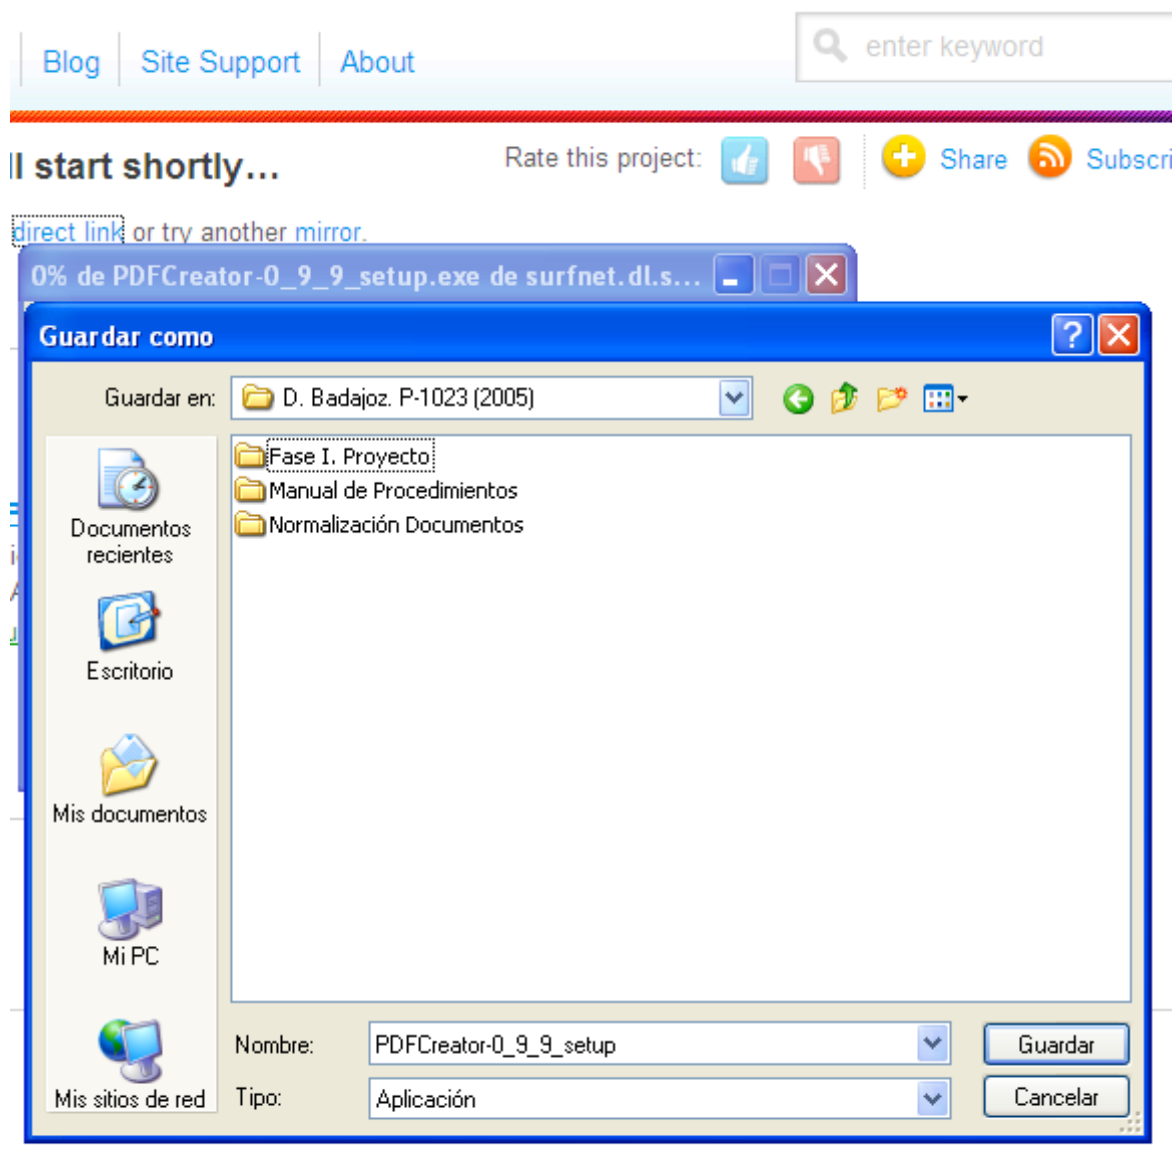

The screenshot shows the SourceForge website header with the logo and the tagline "FIND AND DEVELOP OPEN SOURCE SOFTWARE". Below the header is a navigation bar with links for "Find Software", "Develop", "Create Project", "Blog", and "Site Support". The main content area displays a message: "Your PDFCreator download will start shortly...". Below this message, there is a link labeled "direct link" which is highlighted with a dashed box. A red arrow points from the bottom left towards this "direct link". To the right of the main message, there is an advertisement for "PDF API for Programmers" with the text "Create PDFs dynamically with ABCpdfC#, VB, .NET, ASP / COM" and the URL "www.webSupergoo.com". The advertisement is labeled "Ads by Google" and "from".

3º. Pinchar en "direct link".

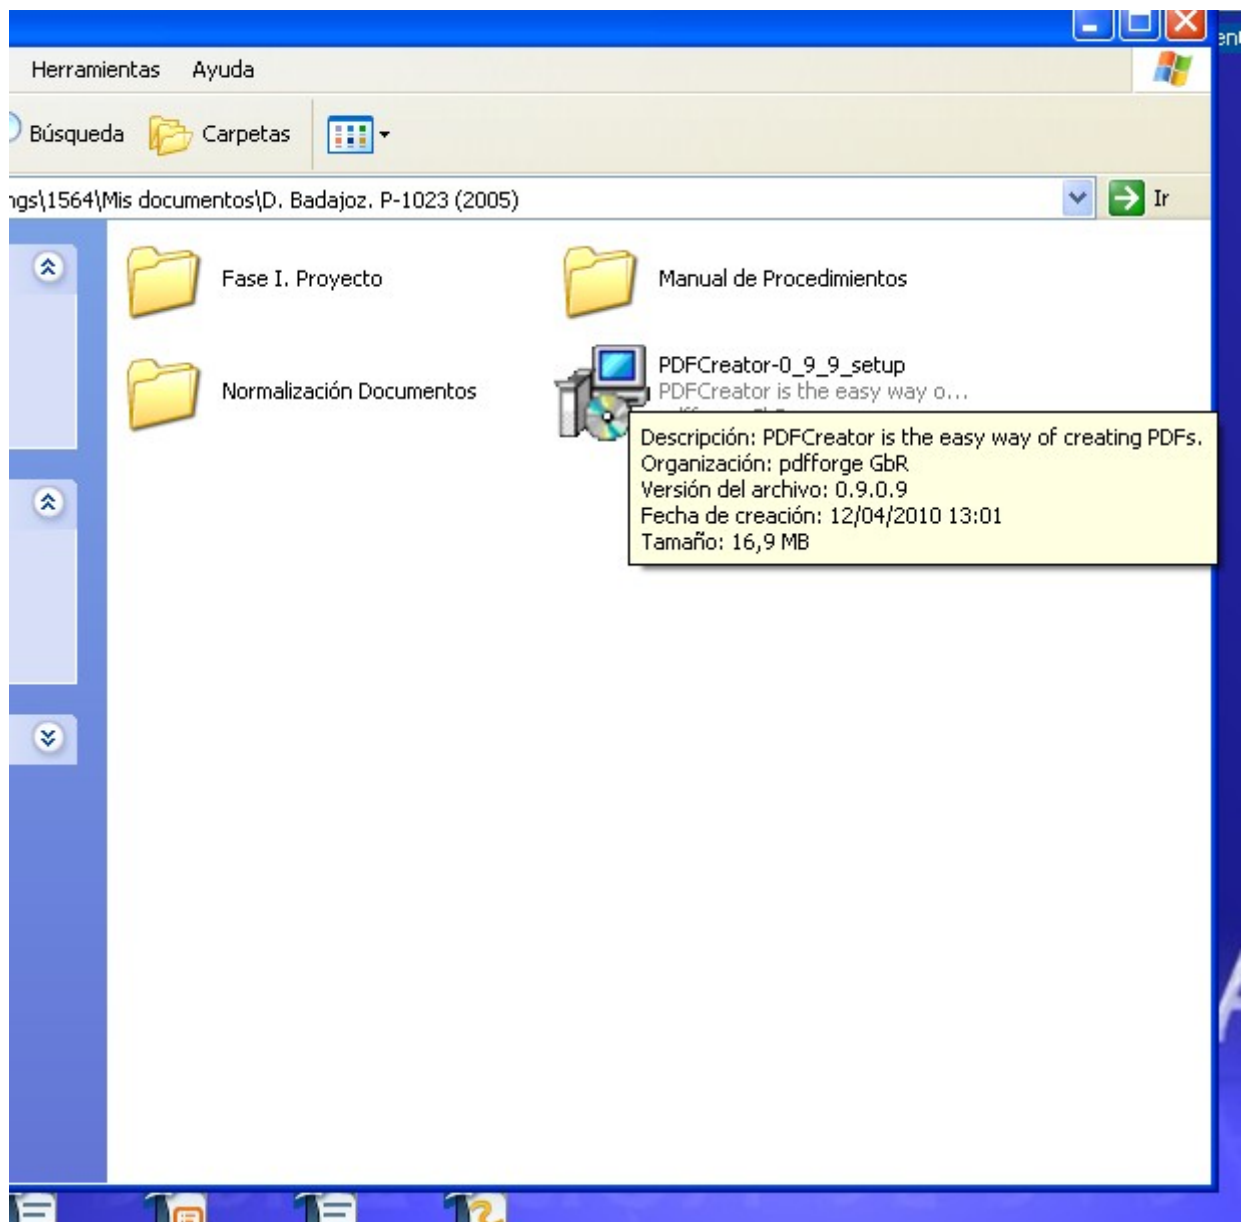

4º. Se abrirá la siguiente ventana. Pinche en "guardar".

5º.- Seleccione un directorio para guardar el archivo.

6º.- Buscar el archivo descargado en la carpeta que lo ha guardado anteriormente y hacer doble click sobre el icono PDFCreator-0_9_9_setup.exe e instalar el programa en el ordenador.
